AMANDA WONG

Occupation: Office Manager, Aurora

About me: I love outdoor activities in any season, reading, and travel.

Special Interests: Amanda strives to create a relaxed environment within the clinic to ensure our clients are comfortable when they walk through our doors. She has 8 years of experience with customer service, medical billing, and scheduling.

Amanda graduated in August 2009 from Seneca College's School of Business in Medical Office Administration. She has been with Honsberger Physio+ since September 2009. Interacting with people is what she enjoys most about her job. She loves meeting new people every day and being able to provide them with a positive experience.

On her free time she loves spending time outdoors doing various activities such as hiking and playing tennis. She also has a love for travel and experiencing different cultures.
